

What is it?

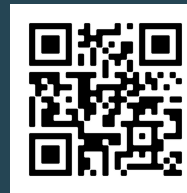

Catalyst grants are designed to help people pursue joy, grasp opportunities & unlock new possibilities

People are at the centre of Catalyst. With partner organisations, they explore what would make a difference to them.

Catalyst partners give more than just money. They give people the space & permission to think about what they want.

Key features

It's a low cost funding model based on trust & relationships

Makes grants quick & easy to award

It doesn't involve lots of rules

Allows people to take risks, try new things, & improve their wellbeing

Puts people at the centre, with grants rooted in what they want

Emphasises joy & allows people to realise their potential